6-9-7. Injury to animals by motorists.
    (1) Every operator of a vehicle upon the streets of Tooele City shall immediately upon injuring, striking, maiming, or running down any domestic animal give such aid as can reasonably be rendered. In the absence of the owner, the operator shall immediately notify the Department or the Division, furnishing requested facts relative to such injury.
    (2) It shall be the duty of the vehicle operator to remain at or near the scene until such time as an officer arrives. Upon the arrival of an officer, the operator shall immediately provide the operator's identity, as well as incident details, to the officer. Alternatively, in the absence of the owner of the injured animal, the operator or other person may give aid by taking the animal to the animal shelter or other animal care facility and by promptly notifying the Division. Such animal may be taken in by the animal shelter and dealt with as deemed appropriate by shelter personnel under the circumstances.
    (3) Emergency vehicles are exempt from the requirements of this Section.
