

A Couple of Thoughts From the Mayor . . .

We are pleased that the Judge in the Tooele Associates' law suit threw out the unjust verdict. The bottom line truth of the matter is, Tooele City had nothing to gain by preventing Mr. Hall from developing his project. On the contrary, the City did nothing to prevent him from developing his project. The City was simply following the terms of the development agreement we entered into with him. Fortunately Judge Skanchy saw through the incorrect jury verdict. We will continue to protect the interests of our citizens.

As far as the Grantsville lawsuit is concerned, I am extremely disappointed; especially in light of the comments made by Mayor Marshall to me. He said, "The matters that have in any way caused ill feelings between Grantsville and Tooele should end." I have a great deal of respect for Mayor Marshall and acknowledge he is not the only person making the decision to continue to spend the citizens tax dollars on law suits instead of police officers, park upgrades and economic development. So be it; we'll protect our citizens against that any day.

Homemade yard sale signs look terrible all over town. The City will be more definitively addressing those that are violating city ordinances in this area in the coming weeks. I would hope our neighbors would have more respect for our city.

There is a reason that a fire lane is required in the front of businesses. It is illegal to park or stop in those fire lanes - ever see anyone do it?

Last thought..... Don't the flowers on Main Street and in the Veterans Park look beautiful? Thanks to the parks department and the volunteers that planted them.

CHOOSING FRIENDS WITH ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIORS

Young people in our community are choosing friends that make poor choices. This graph shows improvement in two grades and a challenge in one age group. We need to continue to show kids that there are opportunities in our community to make good choices and to participate in healthy, pro-social activities and offer positive rewards for good behavior instead of concentrating on negative, anti-social behaviors. Learn more about the programs being offered in our school district, Lions-Quest™ and LifeSkills Training™ and our community family workshops, Guiding Good Choices®.
